Spring Clean-Up Day—Mon., April 27

Bethel's annual Spring Clean-Up Day has been scheduled for Monday, April 27. Highway Department crews will pick up waste materials placed out beside the road beginning at 8 a. m. Materials should be placed in plastic bags or other disposable containers and brush should be tied in bundles. All materials should weigh no more than can be lifted by two men.

The Board of Selectmen will meet in regular session on Monday, April 13, at 7 p. m. in the Bethel Savings Bank meeting room. Agenda items will include: consideration of Board and Committee appointments; review of requirements and procedures to complete the Sludge Site Selection Study; signing MDOT Construction Area Agreement regarding Chapman Brook Bridge project; consideration of a concealed weapons permit application from Danny C. Wheeler; review of cemetery funds status; March financial statement; revised departmental budgets; and of correspondence; meeting with members of the B.E.A.R.S., and consideration of routine items.

In a special meeting prior to the regular Assessors' meeting on April 6, the Selectmen approved a short term agreement for the National Guard to use the Town Farm property for training purposes the week ends of April 11-12 and May 2-3, discussed having a local referendum on proposed legislation to increase the size of the Water District Board of Trustees from three to five members and to change from appointed to elected.

At the final product, a publication of the significant of the county.

GREENWOOD OFFICIALS REMIND TOWNSPEOPLE OF NEW AMBULANCE SERVICE

Greenwood officials wish to remind townspeople that they may call Tri-Town Ambulance or Bethel Ambulance for emergency service. The number for Tri-Town Ambulance is 1-800-482-7433. The number for Bethel Ambulance is 824-2456.

Saturday, the Boy Scout Troop #540 under their leader, Commander Bartlett, was in South Paris, and participated in the Area Showing of their crafts. Ten boys attended.

The next regular meetings of the Jackson-Silver Post and Unit will be April 23 for the election of new officers.

BETHEL HISTORICAL SOCIETY FOCUSES ON ANTIQUE GUNS

Antique guns were the featured topic at the monthly meeting of the Bethel Historical Society held last Thursday evening in the meeting room of the Dr. Moses Mason House. Alden Kennett presented a brief history of gun making and discussed several of the more than 25 guns brought in by those attending the meeting.

It is not known who discovered gunpowder (Roger Bacon, an unknown inventor in Araby, a German monk named Black Barthold have been suggested), the proper mixture of charcoal, saltpeter and sulphur. At any rate black powder and firearms employing it to propel missiles were widely known and used in European warfare by 1400.

There was no uniformity among the early firearms only a basic similarity. Each maker—imitating and improving on the products of others that fell into his hands—developed the best gun he could. Regional likenesses developed and continued on Page Eight

HANDEL'S "THE MESSIAH" BEING PRESENTED APRIL 12 AT WEST PARISH CHURCH

Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah", will be presented at the West Parish Congregational Church in Bethel on Saturday afternoon, April 12, at 4 o'clock.

Singers from Gould Academy, the Congregational and Methodist Church choirs, and the community will participate in performing the Lenten and Eastern portions of George F. Handel's best-known oratorio. The combined choir will be under the direction of Mrs. Francis Fiske, Jr., with Mary Valentine at the organ. Soloists will include Susan Mitchell and Janet Stowell, sopranos; Carol Fiske, contralto; Luis Rosado, tenor, and Mac Davis, baritone.

"The Messiah", based on scriptures relating to the life of Christ, was first performed in Ireland in 1742. When the oratorio was presented the next year in London, it is related that "the audience was exceedingly struck and affected by the music in general, but that when that part of the Hallelujah Chorus began, 'For the Lord God omnipotent reigneth,' they were so transported that they all, with the king, who was present, started at once to their feet and remained standing till the chorus ended."

The custom of rising during the performance of the Hallelujah Chorus originated with this incident. Everyone is welcome to come and hear this special spring music program.

T.T.A.E.R.S. AUXILIARY TO HOLD ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING, W. PARIS, APRIL 14

There will be an organizational meeting of the Auxiliary of Tri-Town Ambulance and Emergency Rescue Service, Inc., on Tuesday, April 14, at 7 p. m. This meeting will be held in the Community Room of the Bethel Savings Bank in West Paris, and the chairperson will be Dot Blackadar.

On the agenda for this meeting will be the following: choosing a monthly meeting date, Auxiliary membership, goals, and work on a calendar of events for the coming year. Election of officers will be held at the May meeting.

Tri-Town Rescue is now on the line with a lot of well trained people, but an active auxiliary is vital to the successful operation of a rescue service, so if you would like to help, but riding the ambulance isn't your thing (or even if it is) you are invited to be in West Paris for this important meeting.

Anybody having questions or suggestions concerning this meeting, feel free to contact Dot Blackadar, at 674-2731, or Mary Emery at 674-2866.

Bethel Recreation Board Announces Registration for Baseball and Softball

The Bethel Recreation Board met Tuesday, April 7, to make final plans for the summer baseball and softball programs, and to discuss the prospects for summer programs in swimming, playground, soccer, and tennis.

The Recreation Board plans five baseball teams: two farm teams; two little league teams; and, one colt league team. Roger Conant and Dave Brown will coach the farm teams while Emerson Merrill and Irving York plan to coach the little league squads. The farm teams and little league teams are comprised of 8-12 year olds. The colt league, 13-16 year olds, will be managed by Al Summer. Pre-registration for the baseball teams will be done through the Bethel elementary and middle school during the week of April 12 thru 17. The coaches hope to have try-outs and final registration on April 25, at Crescent Park School.

On that day, the $5 registration fee for baseball participants will be collected by Maryvonne Wheeler, who has coordinated the baseball program.

Two softball teams are planned for Bethel girls: one team for 8-11 year olds, to be coached by Judy Brown; and, a team for 12-14 year olds to be coached by Jill O'Donnell. Pre-registration for softball will be held through the schools during the week of April 13 thru 17, with final registration and try-out dates to be announced.

Final plans for swimming, playground, tennis, and soccer will be made at the next Recreation Board meeting on May 6. The Recreation Board decided to place an advertisement for a swimming instructor in the Bethel Citizen (see classified section), and hoped to identify some volunteer coaches for the newly instituted soccer program.

This program is tentatively scheduled for August 10 thru 28, and would be open to boys and girls from ages 8-14. Anyone interested in coaching in a town soccer league should contact one of the Recreation Board members: Carolyn Holden, Wayne Gersen, Peter Brown, Maryvonne Wheeler, or Laurence Bartlett, prior to the May 6 meeting.

Bethel Area Health Center Announces Substance Abuse Counselling Available

The Board of Trustees of the Bethel Area Health Center is pleased to announce, that through an arrangement with Tri-County Mental Health Agency, counselling for substance abuse will be made available at the Center.

David Van Hemert, who has extensive experience in this area, will be available on Wednesday evening from 4 to 8 p. m. at the Bethel Area Health Center to counsel individuals and/or family members who suffer from problems related to alcohol or drug dependence.

Mr. Van Hemert, who received his B. A. Degree in Sociology, from Southern Methodist University, earned his Masters Degree in Social Work from Western Michigan University. Prior to coming to Tri-County Mental Health, Mr. Van Hemert was with the New Hampshire Office of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention. This program offered individual psychotherapy, family therapy, and crisis intervention in addition to community education and consultation services for hospitals, schools, mental health centers and other community groups.

Mr. Van Hemert has been with Tri-County Mental Health for over a year and has been counselling residents of the Greater Bethel area at both the Norway and Rumford offices of TCMSH, in addition to acting as consultant to a number of area organizations and continued on Page Eight

Greenwood City — North East Lovell — Sunday River

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

I awoke this morning and heard the patter of tiny feet on the roof, the squirrels had arrived. Then came the cheerful notes of the song sparrow's homespun tune. He sings his nuptial song at nesting time and his domestic tune at the close of the honeymoon until the silence of fall.

The sun lay warmly on the hills, a gay little breeze spiced with spring, danced in the open window, so I got up to start the new day.

There were the murmurs and the wash of the pond, as it rippled its never ending triumphal march to the sea.

The dawn crept slowly up in the east spraying the sky with gorgeousness. It transformed the world into a fairyland. The colors overhead spread with increasing beauty. The sky was flecked with white clouds. Nothing was more epic and span than the air. The everlast hills were like a necklace round our cabin closing us in, warm and cozy, like the hollow of a cup.

Spring is arriving but not suddenly here in the hills, but on a toe, and stealthily, with retreats and skirmishes. But everything is there ready to burst at any moment.

April is still in its first week but the birds are remembering their last summer's songs. The robins, phoebes, red-wings, flickers, and others are again filling the air with melody and the listeners are aware of it.

Several flocks of geese have been seen and heard. Coming after the cold winter, not even the first call of the robin so stirs the blood of the listener. These feathered denizens of the northern wilderness press steadily on toward the pole, babbling of the coming spring. Spring-hungry as we are we must wait a bit longer.

He flew in Sunday morning! "A great majestic heron stands . . . waiting . . . soon a little green frog will become part of a bird that will fly to great heights in the sky . . . yet . . . there will always be little green frogs . . . to trill in the ponds of spring."

To the G. A. Class of 1926: Memory bells must sometimes ring where at various times visions of classmates seem to appear. Gould was well established on the map 55 years ago! Years have come and years have gone and there are some of us left to carry on, so let's do our best while we stay and look forward with pleasure to meet next Alumni Day.

Recent callers at the home of Frank and Dot Curtis were: Ralph and Regina Leeper, Kingstown, R. I.; Phil and Dot Bentley, Lewiston; Patrick Curtis and LeeAnn Pease, Farmington; Mabel Oldham, Welchville; Mildred Bowman, Hebron; Trish Black and Marcia Yates, Local.

Eva Felton is in West Summer for a few days to stay with her daughter, Lucy Bragg, who broke her leg on Saturday.

On Tuesday, Club Eight members met with Annie Jarvenpaa at her home. Evelyn Tamminen was again the winner of the hostess prize.

Fay Holt was in Boston on Wednesday to see her eye doctor.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holt and boys, Windsor, were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Leonas Holt's on Sunday. Ann Holt was also with them.

Doris Hayes and I attended the musical show in West Paris on Friday evening.

Ruth Hastings has returned home from Yarmouth where she spent the winter with her sister. She, Mary Lyon, and I attended the Delta Kappa Gamma meeting at "Katie's Kitchen" on Saturday.

Glenn Hayes and a friend of Gray, and Ardell Hayes of Auburn, were with Doris Hayes at the Hayes Homestead on Saturday.

NOTES FROMEvans Notch*White Mountain National Forest

In October, we informed you that U. S. Forest Service research scientists are working "behind the scenes" to make forest products more usable and less expensive to the consuming public. This week, five publications arrived on the Evans Notch District that may be of interest to you. All deal with the finishing of wood and were produced by Purdue University and the Service's Forest Products Laboratory. The publications are "Selection and Application of Exterior Finishes for Wood", "Finishing - Exterior Plywood, Hardboard and Particleboard", "Paint Failure Problems and Their Cure", "Discoloration of House Paint - Causes and Cures", and "Finishing and Maintaining Wood Floors".

You are welcomed to view these publications at our office and write Purdue University for free copies.

Another publication that may be of interest is the chief's "Report of the Forest Service for Fiscal Year 1980". The report covers the spectrum of activities for U. S. Forest Service during the last year. In light of this nation's dependence on foreign oil, a couple of facts caught my eye. In FY80, energy production from the 187 million acres of land administered by the Forest Service was about 12.2 billion cubic feet of gas, and 6.5 million tons of coal. Through the free firewood program of the National Forests, over 970,000 permits removed fuelwood equivalent to 10 million barrels of fuel oil. Closer to home here on the White Mountain National Forest, 7,630 cords of fuelwood were removed by 1,526 permittees (1979).

Rockhounds or folks who collect minerals as a hobby, no longer need a permit while on the District. We ask that any hole made with hand tools be filled in at the end of the day, if not sooner, and that the area be restored to a near natural condition.

Several other reminders - The Deer Hill Road is still closed to public vehicle traffic due to the ongoing salvage sales. Hikers are asked to inquire about local trail conditions before setting out to minimize inconvenience and provide for their safety. Finally, as we enter the spring fire season, be extremely careful with fire.

What better way to start the week than to have the Go Shoes all warm and ready to go? Well they were still warm from this Monday morning from an evening Saturday night at Rumford Grange where both Joe and yours truly each held an office—Sunday they just laid around but Monday morning they were up and went to Norway then to Oxford—back to South Paris at different places—ending up at McDonald's for lunch.

A call at Cooper Farm for apples on the way home and now if no plans get busted Tuesday night will see Go Shoes at Oxford at Pomona Grange. And of course April 11 means a trip to our own grange meeting. And then we have an invitation to Mt. Grange, Buckfield, April 14 and to Bolster's Mills, April 18.

Viva Whitman is expected home from Pompano Beach, Fla., Saturday, April 11.

The sympathy of all the Sunday River friends goes out to Mrs. Phyllis Williamson in the loss of her sister, Ruth Crosby. They were two lovely ladies and made their home at the old home place on the river each summer which they both dearly loved. We will hope that Phyllis can be with us this summer, too.

Joe and Eva had a most pleasant surprise Saturday morning when who should drive in the yard but Eva's granddaughter, Eva Elizabeth Dunbar — (better known as Polly) from Oxford. How our tongues did wag until Joe yelled—dinner's ready. After dinner she joined Myrna Carter and went to Rumford and they took in a movie. Those two granddaughters spent a lot of the time before they were old enough to go to school at Grampa and Gram Yates' house—did we love 'em and do we still?

A magnificent spring morning—yes a bit cool but sunny and nice—I can remember mornings like this years ago when we had snow and what a lovely crust there would be to slide on for an hour or so in the early morning and such fun it was.

Bear River Grange #285 will meet Saturday April 11 for a regular meeting in the afternoon. It will be preceded by a pot luck dinner at noon. Visitors are more than welcome you know.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Yates are on vacation for a few days.

MUNDT-ALLEN POST #81

Mundt-Allen Post #81, American Legion, meets on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month. At the April 28 meeting a team from Gray will be present to initiate new members. Installation of officers will be held at the May 12 meeting.

The next meeting of the Post and Auxiliary will be Tuesday, April 14, at 8 p. m. at the Legion Home.

Another publication that may be of interest is the chief's "Report of the Forest Service for Fiscal Year 1980". The report covers the spectrum of activities for U. S. Forest Service during the last year. In light of this nation's dependence on foreign oil, a couple of facts caught my eye. In FY80, energy production from the 187 million acres of land administered by the Forest Service was about 12.2 billion cubic feet of gas, and 6.5 million tons of coal. Through the free firewood program of the National Forests, over 970,000 permits removed fuelwood equivalent to 10 million barrels of fuel oil. Closer to home here on the White Mountain National Forest, 7,630 cords of fuelwood were removed by 1,526 permittees (1979).

Rockhounds or folks who collect minerals as a hobby, no longer need a permit while on the District. We ask that any hole made with hand tools be filled in at the end of the day, if not sooner, and that the area be restored to a near natural condition.

Several other reminders - The Deer Hill Road is still closed to public vehicle traffic due to the ongoing salvage sales. Hikers are asked to inquire about local trail conditions before setting out to minimize inconvenience and provide for their safety. Finally, as we enter the spring fire season, be extremely careful with fire.

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK

APRIL 5-11, 1981

"The greatest source of untapped, unfathomable riches" is at hand—everyone's hand—and is inexhaustible in our lifetime and for lifetimes to come.

This readily available resource can supply the wherewithal for the most fabulous extensive, expensive travels to any place on our globe—or, for that matter, to all the other globes. You can go back in time or way, way ahead.

By tapping this rich lode, you can come to know almost anybody of consequence alive or dead, in most cases, by the time you're through probing their thinking and their lives, you'll know more about 'em than even their contemporaries did or than their spouses do.

Imagine being able to know almost everything about any company, any business, any profession, any science, any anything that might be of any interest at all to you.

The richest person in the world—in fact, all the riches in the world—couldn't provide you with anything like the endless, incredible loot available at your LOCAL LIBRARY.

You can measure the awareness, the breadth and the wisdom of a civilization, a nation, a people by the priority given to preserving these repositories of all that we are, all that we were, or will be.

Our libraries are being eroded alarmingly by inflation. It behooves us—all of us—to continue to preserve this great treasure trove. Visit your library and see what they have to offer.

Books added recently at the Bethel Library:

Interlude in Venice by Florence Bowes; The Tenth Commandment by Laurence Sanders; Mysterious Visions by Charles Waugh, Editor (science fiction); The White Robin by Miss Read; Growing Up Masai by Tom Schachtman; More Than Human by Theodore Sturgeon; America's Garden Book by James Bush-Brown; The Passive Solar Energy Book by Edward Mazria; Ebb of the River by Robert C. Mears; Catherine, the Great, by Henri Troyat; Answer as a Man by Taylor Caldwell; Flint by Louis L'Amour; Counterpoint by Holland Isabelle; The Great Crime by Sloan Wilson; Family Matters by Kitty Burns Florey; M.D. by Neil Ravin; End of the Rainbow by Mary Ann Crenshaw; Flight to Landfall by G. Gertrude and Errol Barker are back at their home here having spent some time at Norway—Gertrude a patient at Stephens Memorial Hospital and Errol with his daughter and family, the Robert Lagueuxs.

Inez and Durland Barker left Sunday for a week's visit with relatives and friends in Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Nardi, daughters Lisa and Sarah, are away for a week visiting the families of both Shirley and Jerry.

Mrs. I. J. Pinkham and son, Matthew, are spending a few days with her parents, the Dwight Grovers.

A house-to-house canvass for the Cancer fund will be conducted this month in this area, sponsored by The Past Chief's Club of the Pythian Sisters.

Minnehaha Temple, Pythian Sisters, met Friday evening with E. S. Violet Doughty presiding in the absence of M.E.C. Phyllis Millett. A donation was made to the Cancer Fund and we were reminded of the Jubilee meeting, April 18, also the Grand Lodge session on April 23-25. Betty Stearns was hostess for the evening and conducted a "cake walk".

Rev. B. F. Wentworth conducted the committal service for Otis Cubb at the Hillside Cemetery, Saturday, April 4. An original poem written by Mrs. Peter (Patricia) Parent, in memory of Otis, was read as part of the service.

The Church Circle "Work Shop" met with Geneva Barker, Thursday, April 9, at 1:30. There was the usual food exchange.

NEWS FROM MRS. BOUCHARD'S NURSERY SCHOOL

Everyone has had fun helping to fly a big yellow kite this week and are hoping for many more windy days. Welcomed was a new little person to the group on Monday. Her name is Alex Gillies and she is two years old!

Four year olds are busy recognizing and printing numbers and letters. Letter 'C' is the new letter this week. It was introduced with a story about a caterpillar. The children looked at other pictures of things that begin with C. Three year olds identified pictures of tools and clothing. They colored large butterflies and helped cut them into puzzles.

Art projects were creepy caterpillars, Humpty Dumpty falls and Easter Rabbit pictures. For snack times they made peanut butter cookies, cottage cheese dip, gingerbread and stuffed eggs.

They checked their plants again and found that Hannah Gersen has a small bud on her marigold. Danny Barker has a large bud that is opening into a yellow flower. Everyone is anxiously waiting for it to finish blossoming.

Mrs. Marjorie Jodrey, Corres.
Ground breaking started Tuesday, March 31, on the "Elderwood" housing project on Church Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Champeon of Kezar Falls were recent visitors of his cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Fox.

Miss Sharon Briggs left April 4 for Moncton, N. B., where she will be overnight guest of her cousin, Miss Joan Ramsey, and they will motor to Halifax, N. S. From there they will fly to Jamaica for two weeks vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller, Hampden, were week end guests of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Flanders and family. While here they celebrated Jarrod's third birthday on Sunday, April 5.

Walter McHugh and son, Patrick, were callers Saturday on his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nevel.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Grenier are the proud parents of a son 5½ weeks old. Michael Joseph Grenier joins a big sister, Valerie, who is 3½ years old. Congratulations and best wishes to all.

Anyone wishing to place flowers in the First Congregational Church in memory of a loved one on Easter Sunday and wishing them listed in the Bulletin, please notify Marie Lang or Doris French on or before Good Friday, April 17.

Howard Glover has been a patient at Rumford Community Hospital, returning home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nuppla spent the week end in Rockland.

Mr. and Mrs. Archer Poor Jr. entertained all three of their children over the week end: Miss Penelope Poor and Mr. and Mrs. David McDonald, and two sons, Ryan and Cory, of Laconia, N. H., and Peter Poor of Middle Dam.

A large group attended the Sunday night service at the Calvary Congregational Church. Jean Abbott, a missionary from Taiwan was guest speaker. She gave a very interesting summary of her experiences as a missionary in Taiwan the past four years. A brief prayer and blessing followed the service with a fellowship following in the basement of the Church. Many lovely desserts were served with punch and coffee.

Brenda Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cox, South Andover, was happily surprised at the Youth Group meeting of the Calvary Congregational Church, with a birthday cake and ice cream.

Come to the Flea Market in Andover on Saturday, April 11 at 10 a. m. at the Christian Education Building sponsored by the Ladies Aid of the First Congregational Church. There will also be a food table. Please bring your donations for the Flea Market to the Christian Education Building on Friday, April 10, from 1 to 4 p. m.

Mrs. Elsie Hewey is receiving congratulations on the birth of her 10th great-grandchild, Christopher Michael, born March 28, to Ted and Debbie Berry of Montrose, Colo. Ted is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur (Jo) Hewey Berry of Bloomfield, Colo.

David and Evelyn Wuori went with Polly and Dick Johnston to the Cole Farm for supper and then on to the F. & G. Square Dance at Gray. Jane Carlson was the caller. Others attending from Andover were: Carol and Otis Morton, Rena and Delmar Parker. They had two squares and brought home a bonus. Everyone got your dancing shoes ready, the New England Square & Round Dance Convention is coming up shortly, April 24 and 25, in Worcester, Mass. See you all there.

The Andover Service Circle will be meeting at Joyce Marden's house on Tuesday, April 14. There will be a pot luck supper before the business meeting. All members are asked to bring a casserole. On the agenda are ideas for this year's projects and the revised by-laws. Everyone is invited to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Emerson, Sr., received word that their granddaughter, Medea Poole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony (Tamara) Poole has been named "outstanding citizen of the year" at Kendon Elementary School in Lansing, Mich. The principal, Mrs. Martha Maynard, made the formal announcement at school assembly.

Worship leader on Sunday, April 5, at the First Congregational Church was Arthur Myhrall. Rev. Wuori's sermon topic was "We Have an Obligation". Youth Group met at 5 p. m. at the C. E. B. Monday, April 6, the Ladies Aid met at the C.E.B. at noon for a pot luck luncheon and business meeting. At 3 p. m. the Chemical Abuse and Drug Education team made their presentation to the Girl Scouts at the C.E.B.

Friday: Choir rehearsals: Junior at 6:45; Senior at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, April 11, Flea Market and Food Sale at the C.E.B. Thelma Clark is chairperson for the Flea Market; Betsy Fisher and Violet Swain for the food sale. Flea Market benefits the Ladies Aid and the Food Sale benefits the Church.

Palm Sunday Services will be at 11 a. m. on April 12. The missions offering last week brought in $37.35. One more request before the money is sent to Portland.

Easter Week: The Locke Mills Union Church will host a Tenebrae Service April 16, with supper at 6:30 p. m. and service at 7:30 p. m. What is Tenebrae? It means darkness, it is the reverse of candlelighting on Christmas Eve, where the church is filled with light. At Tenebrae, lighted candles are extinguished one by one until the whole church is cast in darkness, symbolizing death—Christ's death. The Paris Congregational Church, the West Paris Congregational Church pastor and people will take part. Andoverites also are welcome.

In Andover the Easter Day Sunrise Service is at 6 a. m. followed by breakfast. The great celebration is at the church. Choirs will sing at both services.

Notice: There are several plates and dishes in the Christian Education Building. Please check to see if they are yours. If they aren't picked up by April 11 they will be sold at the Flea Market.

If anyone desires to receive the sacrament of Holy Baptism or to unite in membership with the church, speak to the pastor. These services will be offered on Easter Sunday at the 11 a. m. service.

West Bethel

Sunday, April 5, was Missionary Sunday, so-called, at the Pleasant Valley Bible Church. A goodly sum was realized.

Pastor Bert Griffith took his message from St. John, Chapters 13 and 14. The choir sang "Happy Am I".

The special was a duet "Many Mansions" by brother and sister, Christopher and Rebecca West of Rumford, with their mother, Dorothy, at the piano.

Serving as organist was Miss Ellen Lovejoy.

The Sunday evening service, 6 to 7 p. m., has a growing attendance. Everyone is welcome for the hour of song and devotion.

During the past week, a security light has been installed also a flood light over the front door and the huge stones put in place for the steps.

The annual meeting of the West Bethel Union Church will be held tonight, April 9, at 7 p. m. at the church. All members and friends are urged to attend.

Rev. Norman Rust will take as his sermon on Palm Sunday, "God's Man Is Here", from Matthew 21:1-11.

Mabel Walker reports that her brother Yves Wilde is in the Berlin, N. H., hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Mitchell were in Brunswick, Saturday, visiting their daughter and family.

Richard Farren of Gorham, N. H., was in town Saturday to see his mother, Mrs. Maxine Lovejoy.

Last week Miss Lillian Lovejoy spent the week end at Kenneth Lovejoy's, returning Monday to Ledgeview in West Paris.

Friday visitors at Alanson Cummings' was his cousin's husband, Mansfield Packard, of Waterville. It was an afternoon of reminiscing.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lofredda of Portland are spending several days with the Cleveland Lovejoys, and their families. Sunday dinner included, the Lofreddas, the Ray West family, Rick Whitney, and Gram and Gram Cummings.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Sennett of West Paris called at Alanson Cummings' Monday p. m. on their way home from Jefferson, N. H.

Frogs are peeping and we saw the first robin on April 1. Spring is welcome here.

THIS WEEK AT
ETHEL BISBEE SCHOOL

At last Thursday's Ethel Bisbee School Assembly the following received certificates for their April birthdays: Douglas Bennett, Faye Luxton, Steven Taylor, Tammy Huston, Bridget Remington, Kimberly York, Derek Brown, Lawrence Grover, George Howard, Ryan Wheeler, Toni Patten, and Eric Anderson.

Mrs. Bennett gave awards to Bridget Remington, Matthew Bean, Jason Yates, Kim York, and Shannon Bates for being able to decode over 100 words in five minutes.

Mrs. McCluskey presented certificates to Chris Hatstat (good reading), Jacob Barron (good in science), Rebecca Hanscom (creative writing), and Bruce Korhonen (math, class helper and audio-visual helper).

Mrs. Davis had awards for Matthew Cummings (Good Day), Sara Kalley (being creative), Eric Anderson (working hard) and Brenda Hart (reading on her own).

Mrs. Gould's class presented the play "Where The Wild Things Are" adapted from the book by Maurice Sendak. The cast included: Scott Walker (Narrator of Fantasy), Derek Brown (Max), George Howard Jr. (Dog), Shilo Hutchins (Mother), David Bishop and Amanda Wight (Ocean). "The Wild Things" were Mark Cole, Darcy Moffett, Lawrence Grover, Patrick Harrington, Ryan Wheeler, Nicole Hill, Molly Gray, Matthew Arsenault, Toni Patten, Jeremiah Mills and Michelle Inman.

Clarice Gibson, Corres.
April Fool's Day came in with out any real big surprises. Today, the 6th, it has at times spit just a little snow. The weather, on the most part, has been good housecleaning weather, as there has been just a good breeze to air out the blankets and the drapes. The men did a little raking Sunday but in the afternoon we had showers and Frank, Grace and Theresa came over in the early evening.

March 28, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howe went to Durham, N. H., to visit Mike and Susan Marshall and look over their solar home.

Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hannon went to Maine State Coach's Association meeting at Colby College, Waterville. Coach Hannon has started his baseball tryouts.

Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Shaw entertained Mr. and Mrs. Erlon Keniston one evening last week. Saturday, Becky's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bangs, Deanne, Glenn and Jonathan, were luncheon guests, and then all went to visit Becky's and Martha's brother and family, the David Kenistons, at their new home in Mayville.

Stan Brown went into the Rumford Community Hospital, March 31 and will probably be in at least another week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy went to the film "Nine to Five" at Rumford, Saturday evening.

Kristy Angevine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Angevine, went home with her friend, Becky Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Carter, on the bus Friday. Kristy came home Sunday.

Mrs. Geneva McCoy, Mrs. Carolyn Osgood, East Waterford, and Mrs. Sally Bodwell, Bethel, went to a hairdressers' convention Saturday at the Red Coach Grill in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Butters went to Lovell Sunday. Let visited Everett McAllister and Ruth visited Jennie Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith entertained their son, Larry, grandson Shawn, and a friend, Sally,

ONE-ACT PLAY — The Telstar Middle School Drama Club will be putting on a one-act play, "Tillie of the Golden Turkey Grille". The setting of the play is a restaurant at the turn of the 19th century. It's about an evil villain trying to run the restaurant out of business.

The cast includes Jessica Bane, Chris Chapman, Brett Clemons, Denise Elliot, Dennis Gallant, Jim Gorman, Marybeth Isham, David

Kersey, Dawn Myers, Sarah Putnam, Jacob Schachter, and Penny York. Stage managers are Scott Brown and Jim Grover. Props manager is Robin Boyce. Lighting is done by Jon Owen. Directors are June Henry and Linda Yates. The presentation will be at Telstar Auditorium on Tuesday, April 14 at 3:30 p. m. and Thursday, April 16, at 7:30 p. m. A small admission fee will be charged.

Washington Watch

by Olympia J. Snowe
Member of Congress
2nd District, Maine

Maine poultry growers have an ally in Washington in their fight to overcome a potentially disastrous financial situation.

On March 26, I met with H. Allen Brock, deputy administrator for farm and family programs under the Farmer's Home Administration (FmHA). In an extremely productive meeting, Mr. Brock assured me that FmHA does not intend to begin immediate foreclosure proceedings against growers who are unable to meet principle and interest payments on FmHA loans.

FmHA, he said, has a long-standing policy of support to farmers experiencing financial difficulties such as those felt by Maine poultry growers. The agency, he said, will foreclose on individual mortgages only in unusual circumstances.

At present, the Maine Development Foundation is conducting a study on the Maine poultry industry, which ranks as the state's largest agricultural industry. While it is impossible to speculate on what the findings of that study might be, one possible alternative would be the formation of a poultry cooperative. Individual farmers would then buy into the cooperative, one form of which would pool resources and profits and remove crippling overhead costs from financially ailing processors.

FmHA, Brock said, will consider making loans to farmers who wish to purchase membership in the cooperative. He said this financial support would depend upon an industry-wide consensus that the cooperative format is the proper course to follow to save the Maine poultry industry.

I also received assurance from Brock that FmHA will work with my office, state officials and representatives of the poultry industry to distribute information on FmHA programs to growers. Much confusion has developed in recent weeks over what services are available, and the last thing we need in this situation is misinformation.

FmHA can serve as a valuable friend to an industry which is vital to our state's economy. The poultry industry needs all the friends it can get right now if it is again to be healthy and productive.

More Horror: As shots rang out into a rain-spattered Washington afternoon, America began another painful round of soul-searching.

For the fourth time in a generation, the nation had witnessed the horror of the president of the United States under fire from a would-be killer's gun. Violence in politics had resurfaced; it made no sense before, and it makes no sense now. The president, at this writing, is recovering splendidly from his

THANKS EXPRESSED

Both the Trustees and Staff of the Bethel Area Health Center are grateful to all the community residents who helped with the "Quilt of Names" which is now a lovely wall hanging in the Center's waiting room.

Particular thanks go to Carole Gersen who organized and brought to completion this fund raising activity. Also, we would like to thank the following women who made the individual squares and/or did the quilting: Cathy Newell, Doria Fudge, Jane Barth, Ruth Feeney, Mary Lou Fiske, Virginia Keniston, Nellie Frankiewicz, Linda Miller, Carol Starr, Nancy Bentley, Barbara James, Elizabeth Lord, Caroline Merrill, Bertha Thurston, Ruth Wilkinson and Mary Bishop. Mary Gillies, Merton Brown and Saundy Cohen also helped in the project by selling names and collecting the funds for the quilt. We express a special thank you to Romeo Baker for the beautiful frame in which the quilt will be preserved and to Roland Gilmes for his help in hanging it, and to all those who supported the Center by contributing to this very successful community project. If we have left anyone out who may have also helped, please accept our apology. You know who you are, and we appreciate your help!

CANCER CRUSADE VOLUNTEERS ANNOUNCED

During the month of April, a smiling face may appear at your door. Not to sell you something, but to ask you to join the fight against cancer. How? By having a health check-up, learning the seven warning signals of cancer, and by donating whatever you can to support the American Cancer Society's fight against cancer.

In Bethel, American Cancer Society volunteers are teaching women to do breast self-examination, kids not to smoke, and nurses and doctors the latest methods of cancer detection and treatment.

Almost everyone knows someone who now has cancer. One out of four will develop it. Please support the efforts to help find a cure. The following is a list of volunteers who will be going from door to door to ask for your contributions to help fight cancer:

Mrs. Anne Moran, chairperson; Mrs. Barbara Gasser, treasurer; Mrs. Donald Stecher, Mrs. Colwyn Haskell, Mrs. Charles Gorman, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. Avery Angevine, Mrs. Marjorie Cummings, Mrs. Carol Gersen, Mrs. Sue Hutchinson, Mrs. Emily Saun-wound, as are others who were injured in the attack.

America is again forced to look within at an ugly problem, to examine the implications of the violence and to search for answers. Our response is no more clear now than when John Kennedy fell, or Robert Kennedy or Martin Luther King or George Wallace or Vernon Jordan or any of the other victims of a plague upon our civilization.

And since the question of our response is uncertain, it may be easier to fall into the familiar pattern we have created for these situations than to take meaningful action. The pattern has been one of a month or two of frenzied debate, followed by gradual distraction as the memory fades, followed by inattention and inaction. The pattern held after each of the men listed above was stricken.

But what are our options? Two things that come to mind immediately are stricter sentencing for those who commit crimes using a gun and hand gun control. But both of these solutions have critics. Gun enthusiasts fear that gun control may go overboard, affecting the lives of sportsmen and collectors. The arguments in favor of stricter sentencing are based upon an assumption that such a move would act as a deterrent to criminals, a point which some experts consider debatable.

A number of bills have been and will be introduced in the 97th Congress to attack the spreading problem of violence in our society. Compromises likely will have to be struck. But we must produce answers quickly—the events of last week will attest to that.

WALKING WITH JESUS CHRIST

Dear Mom and Dad,
Well, I finally did it—went to Church, but only because Jane and Bob asked us to. They were having their new baby dedicated, a girl born last month and named Rachel—so cuddly. The Church was OK—the people real nice and friendly—could they sing most didn't need a book. The service was impressive, Bill and Rebecca were excited and twitched a good bit in their seats. Rebecca laughed out loud when Bob gave Jane a red rose right up there in front as the Minister said they had a priceless treasure, a miracle of Creation—and should trust in God and not go by their own understanding and in all their ways should acknowledge God and He would direct their paths. Glad I have a good memory—said it came from the Bible—Isaiah and Proverbs.

They told me Rachel's name was from the Bible as well as Rebecca's. This was a surprise for me—especially Bill, so when he asked Bob about it — Bob said, well come to Sunday School and learn about it. So, now Bill takes Rebecca to nursery while he goes to Sunday School! With them out of the house I get things done — though it's lonely.
Now Mother I know you and Dad have as you write—"found a new life in Christ"—well, it's OK with me—but please don't push me—I have no feeling about getting religious—I have enough trouble here with Bill getting fancy about Bible reading and not wanting to get the T.V. fixed—calls it a one eyed monster and isn't going to let it influence Rebecca—says it's a make believe word and even the way news is handled, it's pathetic. Wonders what the home life of the T.V. people is like—says they must sometimes be ashamed of the stuff they put out. Oh, well—we're not all Saints. So I guess it's not the T.V. set, but the producers, sponsors and the people who watch it. Bob says people should not buy any of the products they advertise. He quotes a man in T.V. network programming: "It's largely a function of economics, not of taste." That's a statement—guess Bill's right.

Would you believe I have learned to whistle! Of all things—I remember a little boy named Bud —when he came home from school —you knew he was coming—whistled all the way—he and his friend Dave together outside, so much fun in the fresh air, "no T.V. allowed." So, now it's "Whistle while you work" and to work I go, get dinner ready for my two lovers, Bill and Rebecca.
Love — Doris and Bozo the Beagle.

HOLY WEEK SERVICES AT UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

The Bethel United Methodist Church will celebrate Palm Sunday, April 12, with special music by the choir. Rev. Cummings will have for his sermon "His Triumph". Also, everyone is invited to attend the Annual Palm Sunday supper and program, sponsored by the Church School pupils and teachers, beginning at 5:30 p. m.

April 16, Maundy Thursday, at 6 p. m., will be a church family night supper, followed by Holy Communion around the dining room tables. This will be followed by a dramatization of the events of the night of Jesus' arrest. Mrs. Verna Dyke is the director.

Sunrise Services on Easter Sunday will be at 7 a. m. atop the mountain at Sunday River, followed by breakfast at the ski area. Those needing a ride to Sunday River are asked to contact Dale Thurston. Cars will be leaving the church at 6:30 a. m. and/or will pick up persons at their homes. Easter Sunday services will be held at the regular morning worship time, 10:30 a. m., with special music by the choir, and the sermon by Rev. Cummings entitled "He Lives".

HOLY WEEK ACTIVITIES AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The Palm Sunday service at the West Parish Congregational Church will open with a short musical play, "The Singing Bishop", a dramatization by Hal Hopson of the story describing the writing of the hymn "All Glory, Laud and Honor." Sunday School children, Youth Fellowship, and choir will participate in this drama, followed by the singing of the hymn by the congregation. The choir will sing a selection from Handel's "Messiah", "Lift Up Your Heads, O Ye Gates." The Rev. Norman Rust will preach on the subject, "God's Man Is Here!"

At 4:00 Palm Sunday afternoon, the "Messiah" will be presented by singers from Gould Academy, Congregational choir, Methodist choir and the community.

On Maundy Thursday, at 7 p. m., Jesus' last supper with his disciples will be commemorated with a communion service.

Celebration of Easter Sunday will begin with a Sunrise Service at 7:00 on the top of Barker Mountain. (The chairlift will be running to transport people up and down.) Breakfast will be served at the Sunday River Skiway Lodge after the service. Reservations for breakfast must be made by April 12.

Easter services at the Congregational Church will feature selections for Handel's "Messiah" by the choir, and a sermon by the Rev. Norman Rust on the topic, "Christ Is Alive!"

"HOW THEN SHALL WE LIVE?" AT GOSPEL CENTER, APRIL 12

The Bethel Gospel Center on Rt. 26 will present the second in a film series, "How Shall We Then Live?" at 6 p. m. on April 12. This film presents the Middle Age Period. Everyone is invited to the showing.

To the Editor:

On behalf of the Tri Town Ambulance and Emergency Rescue Services, I would like to thank the citizens of West Paris, Woodstock, Greenwood and Sumner for their support of our fund drive. Our goal was to knock at every door in the four towns to let you know who we are and what our cause is. We strive to provide the best and most professional ambulance service to you, free of charge and as long as town subsidies and your personal contributions meet our expenses we will be able to do just that. We realize that some of you may have been inadvertently overlooked during our campaign drive. If this is the case, and you would like to make a contribution, you can send it to the ambulance service at Box 66A, West Paris, Me. 04289. Your contributions, however large or small are greatly appreciated and will be promptly added to our present total of $4,252.95 which has been earmarked to purchase a new ambulance and it's necessary equipment. We think that this ambulance (which will cost approximately $26,000), in addition to our present ambulance, that Lenwood Andrews most graciously donated to us, will serve kindergarten students (fall 1981) had been enrolled district-wide. Five were from Andover; six from Locke Mills; 18 Woodstock; 44, Bethel, Newry, Albany and Gil-ead. Due to the distribution of the students, three kindergartens may be necessary in Bethel next year. Staffing determination is to be made prior to the April 27 board meeting.

S. A. D. 44 BOARD MEETS

Dr. Gersen also said that Nancy Davis, teaching principal at Ethel Bisbee School, has been accepted at the Principal's Academy sponsored by the State Department of Education. The school was established by Commissioner Reynolds to effectively motivate teachers and provide a good education for their students. Dr. Gersen said he believed the district would benefit greatly by Mrs. Davis' participation in the program. The superintendent also noted that three probationary teachers within the district would be notified by April 15 of non-renewal of their contracts, in accordance with provisions of the negotiated agreement between the Board and the Teistar Educators Association. The non renewals are necessitated basically by Title I fund reductions.

The board approved job descriptions for school secretaries and aides; authorization was granted to expend $2,500 in Adult Ed. funds to purchase mini-computers for use at Teistar in both Adult Education and day school classes.

Directors authorized the posting of the stipend position of teaching principal at Andover Elementary School.

An Adult Education budget for the 1981-92 year was approved. The budget requires $8,705 in local funds. Paul Hillquist of Woodstock was re-appointed as a member of the NOVA cooperative board.

The format for articles to be included in the warrant for the Annual School District Budget Meeting was approved. No meeting date has been set, but it is believed it will be in June.

Authorization was granted permitting the use of two district buses to transport S. A. D. 44 fourth graders to the Shrine Circus.

The board held an executive session to discuss matters pertaining to negotiations.

Board members not present: Harry Dresser, Bethel, and Fred Burk, Newry.

The next board meeting is scheduled to be held at Teistar on Monday evening, April 27, at 7:30.

Mrs. Peggy Lord, St. Stephens, N. B., Can., has spent the last two weeks guest of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pike. Mrs. Lord's husband, Robert, arrived Friday for the week end and they have returned to St. Stephens.

Jim and Jane Chandler are pleased to announce the birth of Jeffrey Allen Chandler, on Tuesday, March 31, at 4:47 A. M. He arrived a healthy, 8 lb. 7 oz. red head 21 inches long. The Chandlers reside in South Woodstock with their daughter, Becky.

The availability of C.A.P. services will be announced to the Senior Citizens group at their next meeting.

Any who would like to contribute ideas or energy to the C.A.P., please call Alice Kimball, 824-2861, Marlene Myers, 838-3841, Marvin Ouwinga, 824-3304, or Jim Chandler, 674-2963.

This is a community-wide project and all churches and interested groups or individuals are invited to participate. Yard raking and clean-up projects will be timed to coincide with the annual town of Bethel trash pick up which is scheduled for the end of April or beginning of May.

Albany HUNT'S CORNER AND VICINITY

Kathy Bennett, Corres.

It is a beautiful spring morning—but rather chilly. The Mayflowers are in bloom. As one walks through the woods they can see that many of the plants are bravely poking their heads up through the leaves that carpet the forest floor.

Several flocks of geese have been sighted in the area. The boys find that the fishing is pretty good for this early in the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert McAllister attended a Fair Association meeting in North Waterford on April 1. Albert has his millet all sown. Saturday supper guests of Albert and Elma were Albert and Roberta White and girls. Sunday callers were Delbert McAllister and son, Bill, from Virginia and Mrs. Joanne Thurston and children. Mr. and Mrs. Rodney McAllister had supper with his folks Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stearns and Laura had dinner at the Chiefs Table in Norway then called on Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Waterhouse on Sunday.

Callers at the home of Hugh and Edith Stearns have been Phyllis Bancroft, Kathy Bennett and Margaret Barton, Frank Howard and Terry and Darrah.

Verna Robinson and Herman Gatchell called at the Wardwell Farm one day last week. On Sunday Arthur and Alice Wardwell went to Gorham to visit them.

Friday evening Margaret Barton called on friends in Denmark while Franklin attended a Coon Club meeting in Bridgton.

Sunday Margaret and Jeff Barton visited family in Brownfield.

All things at K-D's Acres remain about the same. Dan and I have recovered from sore throats. Dave is busy fishing and Dick spends most of his time repairing his old chain saw. Wednesday evening I attended a meeting in Waterford. Thursday, Margaret and I went shopping and called on Christine and Megan Cole. Aunt Dot Hooper was visiting Chris so we saw her also. Saturday evening Dick and I and Franklin and Margaret attended the dance in Locke Mills. Callers during the week were Libby Scribner, Jeff, Jim and Brett Barton, Margaret and Franklin, Paul, Polly and Gus McAllister, Jeff Hooker, and LaForest Twitchell.

Keep in mind that there will be a Mother & Daughter Banquet on May 14 at the North Waterford Church.

That about does it for this week. Hope I don't blow away on the way to the mail box!

NORDIC SKI & OUTING CLUB

TO HOLD SECOND ACTIVITY SUNDAY, APRIL 12

The Bethel Nordic Ski and Outing Club's second activity will be Sunday, April 12, 1 p. m., at Crescent Park School. The purpose of the get-together will be to work on the junior ski program's equipment for summer storage; to have a cook out; and to have a planning meeting of outings for the next several months.

The work session and planning meeting will be held regardless of weather. There will be charcoal fires for a cookout and soccer equipment available if weather permits.

Anyone interested in joining any of the future family outings is urged to come to this activity. Bring old clothes, your own hamburgers and hot dogs, a salad to share and suggestions for future outings.

Anyone with questions about the club or its activities may call Don Angevine at 824-3343 or Anita Remington at 824-3369 for more information.

Everyone is welcome!

Eveline Barrett, Corres.
Things are returning to normal after the near-assassination of our President, Ronald Reagan, and several members of his staff. Many people recalled the assassination of President John F. Kennedy with sadness. Our best to the victims and their families.

Joe Vatcher and Eveline Barrett called on his mother, Mrs. Fannie Vatcher, Danvers, Mass., and his aunt, Mrs. Grace Lane, Gloucester, Mass., March 31. They also called on other relatives and returned home Wednesday.

Several from our hamlet attended the variety show at the West Paris Gym, April 3 and 4. It was a good show but the minstrel shows of by-gone years were much better.

Mrs. Grace Huntley is a bit improved since her stay at Stephens Memorial Hospital.

Mr. Hollingsworth of Massachusetts spent the week end with his daughter, Mrs. George Sweeney and family.

A bridal shower was held for Miss Bishop at the North Paris Community Hall April 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Cordwell have returned from Arizona where they spent the winter months. Welcome home.

Elmer Taylor and family in their school bus left last week for Wyoming. No one has moved into their house.

Joe Vatcher went to Dixfield for an eight months old Beagle pup, to replace the one he lost on Christmas Day, 1980. He also has an incubator full of baby chicks, hatching.

Eveline has decided that it is much cheaper to eat in the state

Songo Pond

Mrs. Ralph Kimball, Corres.
The Bethel tank truck was called Sunday morning to put out a chimney fire at the home of the Billy Robinsons.

Burton Newton is the first of the cottagers to arrive at the pond. He came over the week end. How nice to see a light twinkling across the water again.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parsons and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Randy West were in Lewiston, Thursday. The Wests returned to their home in North Berwick Friday. Jack and Eleanor were lunch guests of his sister, Mrs. Dorothy Kilgore, in Harrison, Tuesday.

Mrs. Buzzie Lapham and Mrs. Gladys Grenier were in Norway, Monday. Timmie Lapham went bowling Sunday with some of his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson attended visiting hours for a friend in Casco Tuesday evening.

While the rest of the family went to the movies in Rumford Friday evening I visited the Herb Adams family in Hanover.

Mrs. Natalie Farrell who has spent the past few weeks with her daughter and family, the Arthur Newells, returned to her home in South Paris Saturday.

Coaches are needed for both Little League ball and both softball teams for this summer. Without coaches there will be no baseball or softball. Please contact Genneth Berryment, Sheryl Wilbur, Doreen Benson or Jane Mills if you are willing to help or come to the Fire Station on Monday, April 13. Come help support your young people.

The Woodstock Extension Group will take an all day trip to the Old Port section of Portland on Wednesday, April 15. They will meet at the Town Hall at 8:45 a.m. Departure time is 9 a.m.

The Daughters of Veterans will meet for a regular meeting on Monday, April 13 at the Grange Hall.

The Historical Society will meet on Friday, April 10, at the Woodstock School at 7 p.m. Bring your collectibles and tell about them.

Saturday, April 11, will be the Awana Olympic Relay Races at the Wayside Christian School Gym in Livermore for Chums, Pals, Guards and Pioneers. Playoffs begin at 12:30 p.m. but teams must be there at 12 noon.

Sunday, April 12, Miss Jeanne Abbott, missionary to Taiwan, will be guest speaker at the Baptist Church at 10:30 a.m. At 2 p.m. there will be an Awana workers meeting. Tuesday, April 14, at 7 p.m. will be the Church quarterly business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ring, Donna and Alan, Freeport, were Sunday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Ring. It was Mr. Ring's birthday.

Althea, Jennifer and Keith Stevens were callers of Mrs. Beatrice Farnum Saturday evening.

Several from Franklin Grange attended South Paris Grange, Saturday evening.

Franklin Grange met on Monday, April 6, for a regular meeting. Three point meetings start April 15 at Pleasant Pond with Franklin filling the chairs. Cards were sent to Chester Bean and Lionel O'Blens. Next meeting will be the special meeting for the Community Service Award. The program was as follows: "Count

Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Jorgen Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Hathaway, and Burton Hathaway had dinner Sunday with Carol York in Bethel.

The Northern Lights Singers met for a business session, pot luck supper, and rehearsal last Sunday afternoon. Plans were discussed for the May 3 benefit auction, supper, and entertainment to be held at the Bryant Pond Grange Hall.

Elden Hathaway has accepted the post of "auctioneer" and he will be assisted by Stan Martin, Jack Roberts, Den Corrin, and Bill Riley, beginning at 3:30 that afternoon. The food committee consisting of Pam Benson, Patti Harlow, Fay Corrin, Winnie Hodson, Carmen Bartlett, Helen Martin, Linda Stowell and Ernestine Riley indicated that the supper will be held at 6 p.m. with the entertainment immediately following at 7:15.

As previously announced by Stan Martin, general manager of the "Northern Lights", all proceeds from the affair will be used to help defray operating expenses of this non-profit interdenominational Christian singing group.

Beginning April 10, committee members will be canvassing the Bryant Pond, West Paris and Bethel area for auction article donations. The pick-up of contributions from homes missed during the canvass may be arranged by calling 88-12 in Bryant Pond, 875-2332 in Locke Mills, and 674-2776 in West Paris.

WEST BETHEL Children's Center

The Children's Center is where it's happening! We've been busy doing our regular activities; and now that warmer weather is here, we're planning more field trips for the children. Last week, we had a successful visit to the Bethel Fire Station; and we plan to take the children to visit the Bethel Animal Hospital. This visit will be done in two days, with half the group going each time. We especially thank Bob Davis, Bernice Rice, and Dr. Hudson for their time of sharing with us.

Already we are taking more nature walks in small groups as part of our regular activity time, and we're hoping that we can get a group of children to Thursday morning's Story Hour each week at the Bethel Library.

Our bouncing Star of the Week is Leroy Howard, a real cutie!

We wish to thank area friends and businesses for donating money to our playground equipment fund. We're still in need of more; so if you've got a little, please give a little. All donations are tax deductible.

We're also looking for donations of new or used sheets to cover the children's mats for naptime. Please call the Children's Center at 836-3700 if you have any for us, or stop by any week day morning. We enjoy having visitors!

Becky Davis and Becky Stowell are with us this week on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday as part of their Career Education class at Telstar Regional High School. The parents of the Center children are sponsoring a food sale at the Bethel IGA on Friday, April 10. Starting at 9 a.m., it'll last as long as the goods hold out. That's all for now, folks.

NEWRY SNOWMOBILE CLUB

LAST MEETING TO BE APRIL 16
The Windy Valleys Snowmobile Club of Newry will hold their last regular meeting of the 1980-1981 season on Thursday, April 16, at 7:30 p.m. at the Raymond Foster School. Election of officers for the following year will take place. All regular members are urged to attend and to bring a friend. Refreshments will be served immediately following the meeting.

The Windy Valleys Club enjoyed excellent riding in Grafton Notch for a good part of this past winter! Join them and enjoy their trails and events planned for next year.

T.T.A.E.R.S. READY TO GO

Sally Wilson, president of T.T.A.E.R.S. receives a final word of advice from Lenwood "Pete" Andrews following the transfer ceremony Wednesday, April 1, which ended 50 years of ambulance service by Andrews of South Woodstock.

B.E.A.R.S., Inc.

(Bethel Emergency Ambulance & Rescue Service, Inc.)

At the new refresher course held Sunday, the training consisted of triaging of patients. (Triage is the selection of patients to determine the priority of care to be rendered to each).

There were eight patients with all kinds of fake injuries or illness. Teams of two surveyed them and put them in the priority group they should be in. Then it was discussed by all. This was very helpful in case there is ever a disaster near here.

Thanks to the patients: Mary Brown, Jon Ness, Charlotte Kimball, Jon Owen, Laura Plawlock, John Greenleaf, Sarah Putnam, and Joan Putnam. All did a very good job.

Safety Tip of the Week

When calling for the ambulance give all the information about the injury or illness and be sure to give the right directions to the place where the patient is. This is of great importance to the ambulance attendants.

T.T.A.E.R.S. News

(Tri-Town Ambulance & Emergency Rescue Service)

A new era in ambulance service began for the towns of Woodstock, West Paris, Greenwood and Sumner, April 1, at a 10 a.m. ceremony when Lenwood "Pete" Andrews transferred his vehicle to Tri-Town Ambulance and Emergency Rescue Service (T.T.A.E.R.S.). Mr. Andrews made it clear to the more than 50 residents present from the four towns, that he is only retiring from the ambulance business and will continue his funeral home and casket making operations. In a surprise move, Mr. Andrews returned to the service the $1,000 they paid him for his vehicle, bringing a heartfelt round of applause from those present.

The first call for Tri-Town came at 11:15 a.m. on Wednesday while volunteers were preparing to park the vehicle in its new location in the old West Paris Fire Station. Answering this first call were Sally Wilson, Mary Emery and Cindy Bean.

Olive Danforth, Auxiliary member from West Paris, has volunteered to do the laundry for the service with laundry products donated by Jerry and Chris Heffley. Davis Insurance of Bethel has been awarded the insurance contract for all except the automobile coverage which will be provided by Goodwin's Insurance of Norway.

For a good time, for a good cause, plan to attend the T.T.A.E.R.S. benefit dance Saturday, April 11, 9 p.m. - 1 a.m. at the Jackson-Silver American Legion Post #68, Locke Mills.

WW I BARRACKS & AUXILIARY

#2943 MET APRIL 1

The World War I Barracks and Auxiliary #2943 met at the Legion Hall, Wednesday, April 1, for their first Spring meeting, following a recess of three months.

It was preceded by the usual "pot luck" dinner served by Maude Danforth, Hilda Donahue, and Jane Van. There were 17 seated at the table. Marjorie Cummings, chaplain, gave the blessing. The meeting opened at 1:30 with Senior Vice President Leona Lurvey presiding. One officer was absent.

The Secretary's and Treasurer's reports were read and approved. Letters were read from Marie Wilson, Regional President of the 1st District, and Margaret Lancaster, State Senior Vice President, also one from Elizabeth Bowden, State President. "General Orders" were read for the good of the Auxiliary.

Plans for the Spring Council being held at the Grange Hall in Fairfield, April 23, were made. At noon a dinner will be served with the meeting from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Bethel members will be there.

Olive Head gave her report of 14 Christmas, five get well, one sympathy card and two fruit baskets sent during vacation. A gift will be sent to Doris Cornell, president, who resigned and has moved out of the State, also a May basket for Selma Chapman who is recuperating following surgery at the home of her niece, Margaret Holden of South Paris. A card was also signed by all for both.

The calendar fund from members were well received and appreciated very much for the treasury.

Election of officers was on the agenda. Installation will be held May 6, Hilda Donahue, Past President, will be the installing officer.

Department reports were passed out to the members, to be filled out and returned before the State Convention June 4-5 at Farmington.

Thank you were received from John Harrington and the Baptist Church of Georgetown for the donation to the Memorial Fund for Cordelia Clark Daye.

A program by Iola Forbes, was presented following the meeting. Poem read, "A Happy New Year", Adeline Dexter; "What America Means to Me", by Belle Laverne, and "The American's Creed" by Thelma Conant.

The Barracks and Auxiliary will meet next on Wednesday, May 6. The committee is Frances Bennett, Olive Head, and Leona Lurvey.

C.A.D.E.T. NEWSLETTER

C.A.D.E.T. (Chemical Abuse & Drug Education Team) has just returned from a three day follow-up session in Greenville. This session provided some additional and up to date information on Alcohol and other drugs.

Al Godfrey, the Governor's official Highway Safety Representative opened the session. His address was followed by presentations from the returning teams. These teams included Washburn, Pittsfield, Hall-Dale, Dixfield, Cape Elizabeth and members from Oxford Hills, and C.A.D.E.T. Each team gave a brief presentation on its accomplishments, as well as its problems since the Bethel Institute in November.

In the evening of the first day, Superintendents Dr. Wayne Gersen (S.A.D. #44), Dr. Bruce Thurlow (Cape Elizabeth), George Stewart (S.A.D. #16), Ronald Jacques (S.A.D. #36), N. Kenneth Smith (S.A.D. #17), Dr. Carroll Howes (S.A.D. #21) Richard Shaw (S.A.D. #53), and Carlton Barnes (S.A.D. #45), held a panel discussion led by Director of Education Omar Norton.

On the second day, each team met in group sessions, viewed a film, "The Last Prom" and discussed Project Graduation and the media blitz surrounding that time of year.

In the evening, David Flanagan, legal counsel to Gov. Brennan, discussed the proposed revisions concerning O.U.I.'s and license suspensions. Rep. Sue Bell discussed Legislative views of Drinking and Driving, and upcoming legislation.

On Friday, Andy Loman, Director of Crisis and Counseling Center, Augusta, gave an in-depth presentation on Pharmacology, the uses and effects of chemicals. Frank Passini from the Alcohol Treatment Program, VA Hospital, Togus, gave a presentation on "Early Warning Signs" in Chemical Dependency, and gave a film presentation, "Alcohol, Pills and Recovery."

In the final presentation, Tom Farrell, principal, Dirigo High School, discussed linkages with treatment facilities, and Diane Travis and Judy Buotte, discussed Alcoholics Anonymous, Al-Anon and Alateen programs.

In the near future, C.A.D.E.T. plans an in-depth meeting with both the school board and district administrators and staff.

Mrs. Arline Bernier, Corres.

Sorry the items were missing last week. They left here Tuesday with 24 hours to get to Bethel but must have gotten hung up somewhere.

Friday (March 27) we got a lovely snowstorm adding several inches to the ample late winter cover we've been enjoying north of the Notch.

Sunday we woke to find the Chinook had arrived. With temperatures in the 60's, a warm wind and a hot sun, the snow rapidly disintegrated and the brooks reached spring crescendo by afternoon with swirling, rushing murky water.

Monday morning the robins arrived in force, hopping over the lawn like colored popping corn.

Late Monday afternoon Peggy Dapalito brought me a package the U.P.S. driver had given her. It contained a book written by a man who'd studied prophecy for 30 years. In the evening I read this book, "Latest Word on Last Days" which described fast moving world events, including some the media gives us sketchily, if at all, and future likelihoods, in conjunction with Biblical prophecy and I listened to radio in back of me as comments and reports came through concerning the shooting in Washington, D. C. It was a weird, exciting and a bit frightening combination.

The Tri-Town Ambulance and Rescue members met at Lenwood Andrews Wednesday at 10 o'clock for the ceremonies of the exchange of the key to the ambulance from Lenwood Andrews to the president and coordinator of the service, Sally Wilson. There were other guests present for the occasion. Mr. Andrews is retiring from this public service but is still our friendly undertaker in town.

Clifton Curtis, Cape Elizabeth, and Robert Curtis, Vermont, visited their cousin, Lenwood Andrews on Wednesday.

The sap season has ended here for this year. It was a very good run for a change. Lloyd Merrifield has some delicious syrup for sale at his home. It is almost like honey with a maple taste. Great!

The logging has also stopped because the ground is too soft for further hauling at present. They have moved to Richard Felt's cutting firewood he has had ordered.

Mrs. Pearl Benson had a telephone call from her son, Dr. Shirley Benson, from Angwin, Calif., in honor of her birthday which fell on March 27. It is so nice to be remembered from people so far away on your natal day. His call was a day late because he was unable to get through but was just as welcomed. Shirley is a professor in Pacific Union College. He has been there for nine years. His wife is a commercial teacher in the academy there. They have one daughter (15 yrs.) who is attending school at the academy.

The place where they live is on a mountain. It is about a mile high from St. Helena town which is at the base of the mountain.

Dr. and Mrs. Benson and daughter are planning for a trip to Hawaii in July. Then they are planning to come home after that for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Pearl Benson and family for a while.

Olive Davis was in Bridgton Saturday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Andrews and families from Massachusetts and local areas.

The Willing Workers

The Willing Workers met with Olive Davis, March 30 with 14 present, namely: Mary Fleming, Sheryl Wilbur, and two daughters, Theresa and Stacy; Pauline, Joanne and Naomi Bean; Nancy Mason, Miriam Morgan, Bethany Bean, Dot Comby, Hazel Waltanen and Diana Waltanen.

It was voted to give $10 to the Ambulance Service of the town.

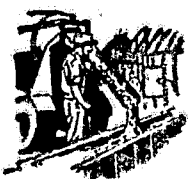

The yearly programs were passed out to the members. Anyone who would like to entertain us just let me know and I will be glad to relay the good news to the members.

Hazel Waltanen brought some of her numerous craft articles which she displayed and explained how they were made. We truly appreciated her, sharing with us all this talent. She makes beautiful things, which make nice gifts for any occasion.

The next meeting will be April 27.

Jean Grover was reported as in bed for a few days after an auto accident. A card was signed for her.

LONG-TIME ATTENDANTS

WOODSTOCK SECOND GRADERS GET ACQUAINTED WITH NEW T.T.A.E.R.S.

Some wonderful people from Woodstock's new ambulance service visited grade two at Bryant Pond with their new vehicle (thanks to Mr. Andrews they have an ambulance).

There was a "practice" accident in which Kelly Hayes, grade two, Woodstock Elementary School, starred as the patient who broke no less than one arm and one leg. The ambulance was "called" and Sally Wilson, president of the group who formed the Tri-Town Ambulance Emergency Rescue Service, Terry Dunham, E.M.T. and coordinator from Stephens Memorial Hospital for C.P.R. and first aid training, Greg Edmunds, and Ray Parkes, all ambulance attendants arrived and took care of their patient. It certainly looked very real. Vital signs were taken. She (Kelly) was well splinted and bandaged. Kelly was put on the stretcher and taken (followed by 20 other classmates) to the ambulance where they saw and heard all the things that make an ambulance work. Thanks to the ambulance people this group of children will be less afraid of an ambulance and the people on it.

The Mothers' Club will meet April 13, at 7:30 p. m. at the home of June Swan. Each member is asked to bring an Easter present for someone in a nursing home. The refreshment committee will be Beatrice Lowell, Freda Robertson, Gail Sysko and Linda Yates.

Pastor Rodney Hanscom has announced that Communion will be held at the regular service at the Newry Community Church at 9 a. m. Palm Sunday, April 12. Easter Sunrise Services will be held at 7 a. m. at Mother Walker Falls in Grafton Notch on Easter Sunday, April 19, followed by services at the church at 9 a. m. There will also be a Baptismal Service on April 19.

The Mothers Club will be sponsoring an Easter Egg hunt and parade on Saturday, April 18 at the home of Robin Fraser. Further details, including the time, will be announced.

Newry

Miss Amy Hanscom, Corres.

Newry Profiles, a history of the Town of Newry, written by Paula E. Wight in observance of the Town's 175th anniversary celebration last year, went on sale the week of April 4th. Newry was incorporated as a town June 15, 1805, 15 years before Maine became a state. The history contains information about the incorporation of the town, lists town officers such as Selectmen, Town Clerk and Treasurer, and Tax Collector, teachers, from 1805 to date, gives information on residences, old and new, and gives many other interesting facts covering the last 175 years. Much appreciation is due Paula, and those who assisted her with the project for a job well done. This required much time and effort and a considerable amount of research. The history is dedicated to Roger E. Hanscom, Chairman of Selectmen, who has served as a Selectman since March 1951. On Monday, March 30, Paula presented Roger with the first copy of the history, personally autographed. Copies of the history, may be obtained from Julie Daye, Sunday River Inn, Western Maine Supply, Helen Morton or Arthur Gauthier. For mail orders contact Julie Daye. Those from away who ordered and paid for copies in advance, will receive them in the mail. Others may pick up their copies from any of the above by presenting their receipt.

successful experiments by one maker were adopted and adapted by others in overlapping circles. These makers were the founding members of the craft known today as gunsmithing, a craft that may be said to have appeared on the European scene during the half-century between 1350 and 1400.

It was not until 1637 that the London company of guild gunsmiths received its royal charter and that was thirty years after the first settlers landed at Jamestown to found the first permanent English settlement in the New World. A gunsmith arrived there in 1608 by the name of Peter Kaffer. Blacksmiths also helped take care of firearms as well as tools brought over from England.

Most of the gunsmiths in the New World who settled in Virginia or New England were English and their guns resembled those of England. Not until about 1710 did German and Swiss gunsmiths arrive in sufficient numbers, settling in eastern Pennsylvania, northern Virginia and the Shenandoah Valley. It was this group whose members, familiar with the German rifled guns, hunting weapons for the most part, developed the graceful, long barreled rifle that ever since has been so closely identified with the Kentucky frontier.

During the years Williamsburg, Va., was the capital city of the British colony only seven gunsmiths are known by name to have worked in the town. During the Revolution many others worked there though few of their names have survived and every blacksmith did some work.

A film "Gunsmith at Williamsburg" completed the program. In it Wallace Gusler who was born in 1942 in Roanoke, Va., spent over 300 hours producing a single gun using 18th century techniques and tools most of which he made himself.

Gusler's interest in antique guns began when his father retrieved from the family attic a muzzle loading rifle of about 1640. The father had trouble getting it to fire and gave it to his son who quickly found and fixed the difficulty. He was then 12 years old. Two years later he made his first gun; it was crude he later acknowledged but it did fire and he did it himself.

From this beginning Gusler set out to learn from books and old timers in his neighborhood all he could about old guns and how they were made. Neither source was entirely helpful; he had to learn from experience. Before long he was making flintlock muzzle loading rifles on order and perfecting his skills in founding, forging, woodcarving and metal engraving. Furthermore, the kind of tools needed in gunsmithing were not always available so he made many of them, even to the rifling bench. Today Gusler is probably the only American gunsmith who makes precise reproductions of 18th century guns from start to finish.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF GUN-MAKING

was given by Alden Kennett, above, at the monthly meeting of the Bethel Historical Society last Thursday evening.

of silence was observed for Society life member Ruth Crosby, who died earlier in the week. Miss Crosby was the author of "I Was A Summer Boarder" and the aunt of Society vice-president Donald G. Bennett.

A corporate seal was accepted in a formal vote. Those attending were polled as to interest in a reprint of William B. Lapham's History of Bethel last published in 1891 which would have a new individual name index added. In addition a short introductory chapter would be included to cover the highlights of the town's history since 1891. Interest seemed sufficient to begin the process with a publisher for a hard cover book with dust jacket to appear in the fall of 1981. Paula Wight, author of a recent history of Newry was present to autograph copies of that publication for those interested. The gift of the month was a collection of notes, photographs and memorabilia relating to West Bethel, given by Suzanne Kneeland Grover on behalf of her family in memory of her mother, Libbie Kneeland, who was working on a history of West Bethel at the time of her death last year. Mrs. Kneeland was a member of the Society and this collection is now available for those interested, in the Eva Bean Research Room of the Society's Moses Mason Museum. Society Director Stanley Howe reported on progress to date for the Indian Raid Bicentennial (August 1 & 2) and urged all those interested to volunteer to serve on committees. The next meeting will focus on Bethel's architectural heritage with a slide presentation by George Allen of the Oxford County Historic Resource Survey. This program will be part of the Society's observance of National Historic Preservation Week. Refreshments and a social hour followed the program.

HEALTH CENTER ANNOUNCES SUBSTANCE ABUSE COUNSEL

Misuse of alcohol and drugs among adults and to an increasing degree among young people is of particular concern to health providers. Alcohol-related accidents are the leading cause of death in the 15 to 24 age group. Over 50% of all highway traffic fatalities are related to the use of alcohol. Not only does the misuse of alcohol and drugs increase risk of accidents and suicides, it also contributes to family disruption and poor school performance; and it has the potential for leading to long term chronic disease and mental and emotional disorders.

In a recent telephone survey conducted by volunteers for the Trustees of the Bethel Area Health Center, the addition of substance abuse counseling service was considered a major area of need by survey participants. It is hoped that, by offering both individual and group counseling, the Center can help those individuals and families suffering from misuse of alcohol and drugs. Mr. Van Hemert will also be available to work with community organizations already addressing the substance abuse problem to avoid duplication of effort, to strengthen community involvement and to help each other by working together to meet the needs of the Bethel Area. Please feel free to call the Center if you have any questions or wish to make an appointment to see Mr. Van Hemert.

MRS. MINNIE H. MORTON

Mrs. Minnie H. Morton died Sunday, April 5, 1981, at a West Paris nursing home. Mrs. Morton had been a resident of Hanover and had lived in the area all of her life.

She was born at Milton Plantation, Sept. 22, 1896, the daughter of Lorenzo and Elizabeth Bodwell Hopkins. She was a member of the Mt. Zion Chapter 142, OES, Rumford Point Congregational Church and Greater Rumford Senior Citizens Club. She attended local schools and McGill University School of Nursing in Montreal. She was then employed at the McCarthy Hospital in Rumford and later for many years served as a private duty nurse in the area. She was married at Rumford on July 31, 1920, to Roland B. Morton, who died in Rumford, May 15, 1977.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Waldron (Diane) Roberts of East Haven, Conn.; two sons, John of Hanover, and Douglas of Dayton, Ohio; a sister, Mrs. John (Grace) Mulherin of Jefferson, N. H.; eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Meador and Son funeral home in Rumford, with Rev. Walter Wyman officiating. Interment was in the Greenwood Cemetery, Dixfield.

ALBANY RESIDENT HAS WATER COLOR EXHIBIT AT BETHEL LIBRARY

Mary Isham a resident of Albany is a newcomer to the Maine art scene, with a showing of water colors at the Bethel Library on Broad Street.

Mrs. Isham studied with Ruth Wilson of New Jersey, and attended several other short workshops by other noted New Jersey artists.

Her works have been on display in several galleries and shows in the New Jersey and Pennsylvania area where she resided before moving to Maine.

Mrs. Isham divides her time between her family farm-studio and a full time position as Supervisor of Student Health Services for Gould Academy.
